

Kara M. Reynolds

Department of Economics, American University
206 Roper Hall, 4400 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20016-8029
Telephone: (202) 885-3768

Current Positions:

Assistant Professor, American University, 2003-present

Research Fellow, Trade Partnership Worldwide, LLC, 2006-present

Selected Past Positions:

Editorial Assistant, International Journal of Industrial Organization, 2001-2003

Instructor, University of Virginia, 2001-2002

Economist, International Trade Commission, Office of Economics, 1999

Economist, International Trade Commission, Office of Industries, 1998

Trade Policy Analyst, The Trade Partnership, 1995-1998

Education:

Ph.D. in economics, 2003, University of Virginia

M.A. in economics, 2000, University of Virginia

B.A. in international Studies, 1994, The American University

Publications:

"The Spread of Antidumping Regimes and the Role of Retaliation in Filings."
Southern Economic Journal, 72:4 (2006). With Robert M. Feinberg.

"Subsidizing Rent-Seeking: Antidumping Protection and the Byrd Amendment," Journal of International Economics, 70 (2006).

"The Returns from Rent-Seeking: Campaign Contributions, Firm Subsidies and the Byrd Amendment. " Canadian Journal of Economics, 39:4 (2006). With Benjamin Liebman.

"Dumping on Farmers: Are there Biases in Global Antidumping Regulations," Journal of International Agricultural Trade and Development. Forthcoming.

“Tariff Liberalization and Increased Administered Protection: Is there a Quid Pro Quo.” World Economy. Forthcoming (With Robert M. Feinberg).

“Countervailing Duties.” The Princeton Encyclopedia of the World Economy. Forthcoming.

Papers Presented at Professional Meetings and Seminars:

“Free-Riders Among the Rent-Seekers: A Model of Firm Participation in Antidumping Petitions,” Midwest International Economics Meetings (September, 2002), Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management Meetings (October, 2002), Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2002), International Trade Commission Seminar (November, 2003), George Washington University Seminar (February, 2004), and Eastern Economic Association Conference (February, 2004).

“Sourcing Patterns and the Elimination of Textile and Apparel Quotas,” American University (December, 2003).

“Globalization and the U.S. Retail Industry: A Model of International Sourcing,” Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2004).

“The Spread of Antidumping Regimes and the Role of Retaliation in Filings,” International Trade Commission (September, 2004), American University (October, 2004), Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2005).

“Rent-Seeking: Antidumping Protection and the Byrd Amendment,” Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2005).

“From Agreement to Application: A Cross-Country Analysis of Injury Determinations under the WTO Antidumping Agreement,” College of William and Mary (October, 2006), Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2006), Antidumping and Developing Countries Conference (December, 2006).

“Politics and WTO Dispute Settlement: Why Are So Many Disputes Still Pending?,” Southern Economic Association Meetings (November, 2006).

Contributions to U.S. International Trade Commission Studies:

Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Products (Investigations 701-TA-393 and 701-TA-829-840)

U.S. Trade and Investment with Sub-Saharan Africa (USITC Publication 3371)

Crude Petroleum Oil Products (Investigation C-201-826)

Working Papers:

“Anticipated versus Realized Benefits: Can Event Studies be used to Predict the Impact of New Regulations”

“Friendly Fire? The Impact of U.S. Antidumping Enforcement on U.S. Exporters,”
with Robert M. Feinberg

“The Erosion of Tariff Preferences: The Impact of U.S. Tariff Reductions on Developing Countries”

“From Agreement to Application: A Cross-Country Analysis of Injury Determinations under the WTO Antidumping Agreement”

“Politics and WTO Dispute Settlement: Why Are So Many Disputes Still Pending?”

“Free-Riders Among the Rent-Seekers: A Model of Firm Participation in Antidumping Petitions”

“A Reassessment of Relative Causes of Declines in U.S. Textile and Apparel Industries: Is the Picture as Bleak as Some Paint It?”

“Sourcing Patterns and the Elimination of Textile and Apparel Quotas”

“Globalization and the U.S. Retail Industry: A Model of International Sourcing”

Referee:

Canadian Journal of Economics, Journal of International Economics, Southern Economic Journal, and Economics and Politics.